"WE GO WHERE DEMOCRITIC PRINCIPLES POINT THE WAY ;--- W

BY JOHN G. GIVEN.]

Gentle Words---Loving Smiles. The sun may warm the grass of life, The dew the drooping flower, And eyes now bright and watch the light Of Autumn's opening hour --

But words that breathe of tenderness, And smiles we know are true, Are warmer than the Summer time, And brighter than the dew.

It is not much the world can give, With all its subtle art. And gold and gems are not the things To satisfy the heart: But oh, if those who cluster round

The alter and the hearth. Have gentle words and loving smiles, How beautiful is earth.
